CENTARA SANDY BEACH RESORT DANANG

Close to the beautiful scenery of Marble Mountain, and within easy reach of Danang City and the ancient port town of Hoi An, the resort is set directly on the fine sands of Non Nuoc Beach and has sweeping views of the East Sea.

Leisurely excursions can be made to Hue Imperial City, My Son Holy Land, and the famous four-seasons-in-a-day Ba Na Mountain. Son Tra Peninsula, with its forested mountain and sandy beach is a popular conservation area amongst the local, with a prime access to famous golf courses nearby.

Surrounded by unspoiled nature, and with 42 acres of fragrant manicured gardens, there is space, privacy and absolute comfort to be enjoyed by independent travellers, couples, families and groups alike.

LIVING

With the option of an ocean or garden view, all rooms, bungalows and villas are close to either one of the two resort swimming pools. Most rooms and bungalows have enough space for couples and parents with young children, plus all the facilities they might require. The villas are extra large with a separate living room.

Premium Deluxe rooms and Premium Suites feature a furnished balcony with the option of overlooking the gardens or Non Nuoc Beach and the East China Sea beyond.

CHILLING

The beautiful sandy beach directly in front of the resort is a playground for water sports and leisure activities such as basket boat, kayaking, beach volleyball and beach football. There are two swimming pools, the main pool being on the beachfront with the second pool set in the gardens.

The Kids' Club will keep the youngsters busy and happy, with a programme of activities and water sports. A tennis court is available, along with a games area that offers snooker, table tennis and table football along with plenty of space on the beach and in the gardens to enjoy family games together.

SPA Cenvaree has indoor treatment suites and massage facilities set in the garden and on the beach. The speciality here is the traditional Vietnamese massage and aromatherapy massage.

Complimentary wireless internet access is available throughout the resort.

DINING

Asian cuisine along with international favourites are served at The World, the resort's prime spot for breakfast, lunch or dinner. Ginger & Lime serves Vietnamese and Thai cuisine, and a selection of Halal food with a choice of indoor or outdoor seating. When you're ready for a break from swimming or relaxing on the beach, comfort food, local specialities and cool refreshments are only a few steps away at Hoi An Beach Bar. Breeze Bar is the ideal place for Vietnamese tapas and drinks while the Lobby Lounge is a perfect retreat any time of day for coffee, tea, cold drinks and light snacks. In-room dining is also available.

MEETINGS & WEDDINGS

The resort is suitable for events and meetings of all kinds, with indoor space that can cater for up to 1,000 guests for a cocktail reception and with attractive outdoor spaces ideal for receptions and parties. The lush green setting of the moonlit gardens will hold up to 1,000 guests, while the beachfront pool and the garden pool are both memorable areas for receptions of up to 500 guests.

Events and meetings spaces are supported by the latest in presentation technology, along with a team of organisers that will make your event run exactly as you wish, be it a private party, a corporate meeting or seminar, or a spectacular wedding.
